JHONNY CABRERA,

Plaintiff,

v.

MACA RESTAURANT, CORP. d/b/a FIRENZE RESTAURANT, and MANUEL CAISAGUANO,

Defendants.
-----X

COMPLAINT

CASE NO.:

Plaintiff Jhonny Cabrera alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This Court has original federal question jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 because this case is brought under the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. §§ 201, et seq. (“FLSA”). This Court has supplemental jurisdiction over the New York state law claims, as they are so related to the claims in this action within the Court’s original jurisdiction that they form part of the same case or controversy under Article III of the United States Constitution.

2. Venue is proper in this District because Defendants conduct business in this District, and the acts and/or omissions giving rise to the claims herein alleged took place in this District.

PARTIES

3. All Defendants are hereinafter collectively referred to as “Defendants.”

4. Defendant Maca Restaurant Corp. is a New York corporation that owns and operates Firenze Restaurant located on the Upper East Side in Manhattan.

5. Firenze closed down briefly in February 2017 due to a fire and is set to reopen shortly at a nearby location.

6. Upon information and belief, Maca Restaurant Corp. has an annual gross volume of sales in excess of $500,000.

7. Maca Restaurant Corp. is owned and operated by Defendant Manuel Caisaguano

8. Defendant Caisaguano exercises sufficient control of the restaurants’ day to day operations to be considered Plaintiff’s employer under the FLSA and New York law.

9. Defendant Caisaguano hires and fires employees at Firenze Restaurant.

10. Defendant Caisaguano controls employees’ schedules and rates of pay.

11. To the extent that employment records are kept for employees, Defendant Caisaguano maintains those records.

12. Plaintiff Jhonny Cabrera was employed as a server by Defendants from December 2010 until about February of 2017.

FACTS

13. Defendants committed the acts alleged in this Complaint knowingly, intentionally and willfully.

14. Defendants knew that nonpayment of the overtime premium would economically injure Plaintiff and violated federal and state laws.

..

15. Throughout Plaintiff's employment with Defendants, Plaintiff worked six days per week.

16. For the first three years (approximately) of Plaintiff worked 4 double shifts (lunch and dinner) and 2 dinner shifts.

17. For the remainder of Plaintiff's employment, he worked 3 double shifts and 3 dinner shifts.

18. Double shifts typically began at 11:30 a.m. and continued until closing time, which would be some time after 10:00 p.m.

19. During a double shift, Plaintiff took only a short break of roughly 20 minutes to eat lunch.

20. Dinner shifts typically began at 4:30 p.m. and continued to closing.

21. For the first approximately 3 years of Plaintiff's employment, Plaintiff received no pay other than his tips.

22. For the remainder of his employment, Plaintiff was paid for only 30 hours of work at the "tip credit" minimum wage, even though he worked well in excess of 40 hours per workweek.

23. Defendants were not entitled to pay Plaintiff pursuant to any tip credits, because they did not give him proper notice of the tip credits.

24. Defendants did not pay Plaintiff any "spread of hours" premium when Plaintiff's workday lasted longer than 10 hours.

25. Defendants did not give Plaintiffs any regular wage statements until approximately 2014. At that point, they began to give Plaintiff wage statements which were insufficient, because, inter alia, they did not recite Plaintiff's actual hours worked.

26. Defendants never gave Plaintiff a Notice and Acknowledgment of Pay Rate as required by NYLL § 195.

27. At the end of each of the first three years of Plaintiff's employment, Defendants issued and (upon information and belief) filed IRS W-2 forms which incorrectly stated Plaintiffs' wages.

28. Defendants did not distribute to Plaintiffs his tips from the last roughly 4 weeks of his employment.
